

Arlyn Lambert, age 82, of Beaver City, Nebraska passed away on Tuesday, October 3, 2017 at the Christian Homes, in Holdrege, Nebraska. He was born on a farm northwest of Beaver City on November 16, 1934, to Lawrence and Vera (Champlin) Lambert.

He attended District #2 grade school and graduated from Beaver City HS in 1953. He married his high school sweetheart, Dorothy Stalder, in February, 1953 and began a life long career in farming south of Beaver City, along the Sappa Creek. Here they raised three children: Larry Arlyn, Jacqueline Lynn and Charles Lee.

Due to difficult economic times in 1963, he left the farm for a year and worked as an auto mechanic in Fort Morgan, CO. He raised cattle and hogs; grew corn, wheat and alfalfa; and did custom farming. He was always willing to help young farmers in the area get started.

The family enjoyed traveling throughout the United States and spending time with friends and neighbors. He retired from farming in 1994 when he and Dorothy purchased a home in Beaver City. They attended the First Presbyterian Church of Beaver City, NE.

Those left to cherish his memories are his three children: Larry & Brenda (Brown) Lambert of Grand Island, NE; Jacque & Ivan Marshall of Kearney, NE; and Chuck & Jaylene (Slama) Lambert of Bridgeport, NE.; six grandchildren: Joe (Brooke) Lambert of Papillion, NE; Adam (April) Lambert of Cody, NE; Vanessa Robbins of Alliance, NE; Chantell (Aric) Mickelsen of York, NE; Alicia Lambert of Kearney, NE and Molly Lambert of Bridgeport, NE.; eight great-grandchildren: Cadence, Cohen, Leah, Madelynn & Brynn Lambert of Cody, NE; and Mccoy, Lincoln, and Connor Lambert of Omaha, NE; and two brothers: Ellis (Jean)Lambert of Holdrege, NE and Earl Lambert of Alma, NE.
