

Audre E. Haussler, age 86, of Arapahoe, Nebraska passed away on Wednesday, August 3, 2016 at C.A. Mues Good Samaritan Society of Arapahoe, Nebraska. She was born on July 9, 1930 in Arapahoe, Nebraska to Carl & Lena (Hilker) Menze. She was baptized on July 27, 1930 at St. Matthews Lutheran Church northwest of Arapahoe. Audre attended country school and graduated from Arapahoe City School in 1947. After high school she taught at District 1 Sunflower School northwest of Arapahoe.

On December 27, 1948, Audre married Victor C.W. Haussler at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Minden, Nebraska with Rev. Martin Schabacker officiating. To this union three children were born: David Scott in 1950, Cynthia (who died in infancy) and Jill Angela in 1955. Audre worked with her husband on the family farm, milking cows and driving truck during wheat harvest. She was an excellent cook and throughout the years many family dinners were held around her table.

In September of 1974 she began working at Wagner's Supermarket in Arapahoe, Ne. and was employed there for 22 years, retiring in December of 1996. In 1976, Audre and Victor moved to their new home in Arapahoe. On May 5, 2005 Victor passed away. Audre remained in her home until January 2016 when she moved to the C.A. Mues Good Samaritan Center in Arapahoe, Ne. In July, Audre celebrated her 86th birthday at the Sunshine Village Blue Room with all her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren present.

Audre is preceded in death by her husband, Victor; parents Carl & Lena; daughter Cynthia; sister Carol Haussler and brothers Bryce Menze & Larry Menze.
