

Calvin Harold Faw was born February 9, 1926 in Arapahoe, Nebraska to Harold Washington Faw and Anna Caroline Thomas. He passed away May 31, 2017 at the Arapahoe Nursing Home.

He attended Arapahoe Public School and graduated in 1944. He enlisted in the Navy soon after graduation and served 28 months on active duty, 26 months were at sea in the WWII Pacific campaign. He was honorably discharged and returned to Nebraska to enroll in Doane College for 2 years. There he met and married his wife of 68 years, Grace Casteel. They made their home in Arapahoe, where they resided until they moved to Prairie Pines.

He was Masonic Lodge member for 60 years and a life time member of the American Legion. He served as a member and Fire Chief of the Arapahoe Fire Departments and the Arapahoe City Council.

Cal was an avid bird hunter and made many service calls during hunting season with this dog and gun – just in case he spotted a pheasant.

He played golf and will probably be setting up a match with Jake McCoy, Roland Emmett, Bill Williamson, Don Adams and Pete Rice this week.

Supporting the The College World Series and the Kansas City Royals were high on their list of fun events.

Cal owned and operated Faw's Garage since 1948 with his father Harold and son Matthew as a Chrysler, Plymouth, Dodge and Jeep dealer. Cal and Grace have been steadfast community and school supporters.
