

Jack D. Morse, age 68, of Beaver City, Nebraska passed away on Tuesday, November 14, 2017 at the Phelps Memorial Hospital, in Holdrege, Nebraska. He was born in Holdrege, on March 1, 1949, to Dale W. and Marie “Mae” (Allen) Morse.

He grew up on the farm northwest of Beaver City, Nebraska and attended Beaver City High School graduating with the class of 1967. After high school, he attended Nebraska Wesleyan and the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. After receiving his degree, he taught for a few years at Ord High School, in Ord, Nebraska. He then worked as an appraiser for FHA before moving back to Beaver City and buying his parent’s farm. On November 29, 1980, he married Mary O’Hare. This union was blessed with a daughter, Elizabeth in October of 1984.

Jack enjoyed collecting military memorabilia, focusing on WWII. He was an avid hunter who went on many exciting hunting trips all over the United States and Canada. He enjoyed farming and raising cattle for many years and later on added a buffalo herd to the farm. His family was most important and he cherished the times he was able to spend with them, especially special time making memories with his grandchildren.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Beaver City where he was known as the honorary candle lighter. He also served on the Rural Fire District Board, member of the Charles Roy Bonham American Legion Post #28 of Beaver City, and cemetery board.

He is survived by his wife Mary Morse of Beaver City, Nebraska, Daughter: Elizabeth and husband Robert Cooley of Kearney, Nebraska and grandchildren: BreAnna, Aiden, and Madelyn, Brother: Jim and wife Nancy Morse of Loomis, Nebraska, Sister: Mary Lou Mittan of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Many Nieces, Nephews, relatives, and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents
