

Kaye Linner, age 63, of Hendley, Nebraska passed away on Monday, February 20, 2017 at the CHI Good Samaritan Hospital, Kearney, Nebraska after a very short illness of meningitis. She was born on July 19, 1953, at McCook, Nebraska to Wendell & Dorthea (Martin) Wentling.

She graduated from Beaver City High School with the Class of 1971. She married Doug Linner, her high school sweetheart in 1972. Kaye would work over 32 years as a para-educator at Republican Valley Elementary in Indianola, Nebraska, District 41 north of McCook, Nebraska and Eisenhower Elementary in Norton, Kansas.

Kaye was very involved in all of her grandkids lives and loved to watch them participate in their many sporting events and other extracurricular activities. You could always find her sporting her grandkids' school colors. She was very devoted to and loved to watch all of the Cornhusker athletics, especially Husker volleyball. She was a member of the Faith Community Church in Beaver City, Nebraska. She had a very giving heart and touched so many lives.

She is preceded in death by her mother Dorthea, father & mother in law Harold and Annabelle Linner, Brother-in-law Lynn Rakes.
